

Frequently Asked Questions

Q:	Where does the money raised go?
A:	Funds raised are donated directly to the most promising SCAD research. Currently we are directing most research money to Mayo Clinic's SCAD research project in Rochester, MN, under the leadership of Dr. Sharonne Hayes. A small portion of money raised is used to pay for organizational overhead such as legal filing fees and SCADaddle expenses. SCAD Research, Inc. is an all-volunteer organization with no paid employees. SCAD Research, Inc. is overseen by a volunteer Board of Directors.
Q:	Is there a registration fee?
A:	There are various registration fees depending on the participant's age. All participants who register by a given date receive a SCADaddlet-shirt as part of their registration fees. There is no registration fee if you participate virtually. Virtual participants do not receive a t-shirt. A SCADaddle t-shirt can be purchased through our SCAD Store.
Q	Can I raise additional funds?
A:	Absolutely, every dollar raised brings us closer to discovering the causes and treatments for life altering SCAD events. All registered participants (including virtual participants) have an option to form a team. A personal fundraising page is automatically set up when you register. We encourage you to customize your team and your personal fundraising page. You can send your link to family/friends/co-workers and post your link on your Facebook page and other social media. You'll be surprised by people's generosity when you simply ask – no arm twisting needed! You may want to name and dedicate your team or personal fundraising page to someone who has experienced a SCAD event.
Q:	If people "sponsor" me, are their names listed? Is their support tax deductible?
A:	Those who want to sponsor you by donating to your fundraising page have the choice to list their name or remain anonymous. You will, however, be notified of the identity of those who donate to your page. Contributions through your fundraising page go to SCAD Research, Inc., which is an IRS approved 501(c)(3) charity. Donations for which no goods or services are exchanged are tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law. Donors should consult their tax advisor to determine how the rules apply to their particular case. SCAD Research, Inc. is not responsible for giving tax advice. Donors can make a donation online to your fundraising page or by checks made out to SCAD Research, Inc. Donations should be sent to SCAD Research, Inc. 10115 E. Bell Rd. Ste 107-127,

	Scottsdale, AZ 85260. It is important to indicate the donation is for your fundraising page so we can credit your page.
Q:	What if I cannot make it to the SCADaddle and I want to contribute?
A:	If you are unable to join us in person at our Pennsylvania SCADaddle, you can register to participate virtually , donate to someone's fundraising page or team page . You can also donate directly to SCAD Research, Inc
Q.	How far are we running/walking? What if I can't run/walk that far?
A.	The course is an approximately ½ mile loop. We will be stamping your card for the number of loops completed. We encourage people to do as many or as few loops as they like – whatever makes them most comfortable. We do not want anyone to do anything they do not feel comfortable doing. We are just glad that you can join us!
Q.	Are strollers, wagons, and leashed dogs allowed on the trail?
A.	While strollers, wagons, and leashed dogs are allowed on the path, please use your own discretion. Those with strollers, wagons, and leashed dogs will be asked to line up towards the end of the line of people waiting to start at the starting line. Please be courteous of and yield to the other runners and walkers on the course.
Q.	Will the event be timed?
A.	Because this is a fun walk/run, it will not be an officially timed event.
Q.	Are there awards/recognition for participants?
A	All registered participants will receive a medal to recognize their participation. Those who register by September 15 will also be guaranteed a SCADaddle t-shirt.
Q.	What if it rains?
A.	We will have the SCADaddle rain or shine. So, grab your umbrella and raincoats and join us. There are no refunds.
Q.	How do I get to the park?
A.	The SCADaddle and Participants' Lunch is conveniently located at the Quakertown Exit (Exit 44) of the Pennsylvania Turnpike's, Northeast Extension (Route 476). Take Exit 44 from the Northeast Extension. Stay to the right after going through the toll booth and merge to right on to John Fryes Highway, Route 663. At the next light, turn right on to Krammes Road. The park is right there on the left, across the street from the Milford Township Municipal Building.
Q:	Who should I contact if I have more questions?
A:	Contact the planning committee at SCADeastcoast@scadresearch.org or through our website scadresearch.org
